Re: Request for Reallocation of Bond Savings

Dear Mr. Fulton,

The Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education has, as one of its priorities, the designation of land for a future new Ashley Elementary School.

As you know, the voters of Forsyth County passed a $350 million bond referendum in 2016. After the completion of several traffic improvements projects, the Board has realized savings as follows:

County Number	Project Name	Savings
393015	Wiley MS/RJ Reynolds Improvements	$695,438.71
393016	Parkland HS Traffic Improvements	$ 3,915.98
393017	Southeast MS Improvements	$106,197.00
	Total	$805,551.69

On December 10, 2019, the Board approved the reallocation of these funds for the future purchase of land for a new Ashley Elementary School.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me or Darrell Walker, Assistant Superintendent of Operations.

Sincerely yours,

Andrea Gillus
Chief Financial Officer
